This landmark addition to medici.tv's extensive catalog represents a major commitment to providing access to the greatest works of the operatic repertoire for music lovers worldwide.

This momentous launch coincides with the centenary of Puccini's death, offering music lovers a unique opportunity to (re)discover the complete works of this emblematic composer of the Italian operatic repertoire. From the heartbreaking romance of La Bohème to the exotic grandeur of Turandot, including Tosca, Madame Butterfly, and Il Trittico trilogy, Puccini's most beautiful works will be accessible with unique productions from the Verona Arena, the Wiener Staatsoper, and Florence's Maggio Musicale, with five-stars castings including Sonya Yoncheva, Jonas Kaufmann, Asmik Grigorian, Javier Caramena and Vittorio Grigolo.

Mozart enthusiasts will also be able to delve into the composer's brilliant and diverse operatic works. This unique collection will offer the 23 operas from W.A. Mozart to the viewers, from the youthful exuberance of The Abduction from the Seraglio to the profound psychological drama of Don Giovanni and the enchanting fantasy of The Magic Flute. Seven rarely-performed operas will also complete this collection (Ascanio in Alba, Il re pastore, Rex tremendous and more).

From November 15th, 2024, the complete Da Ponte Trilogy (Le Nozze di Figaro, Don Giovanni and Così fan tutte) will be broadcast from the unique and beautiful Royal Opera of the Château de Versailles. These masterpieces will be staged by Ivan Alexandre and conducted by Mark Minkowski, accompanied by his ensemble Les Musiciens du Louvre. Experience the captivating energy of a remarkable vocal casting, featuring Robert Gleadow, Alexandre Duhamel, and
